By the way, the worst dog fights are inter-female dog fights (they are fierce) When fights begin in a larger pack (4 or more dogs), most of the time all the dogs will gang up on the newer dog. Once a dog has been attacked it is often traumatized for life. These dogs will always be leery of meeting new dogs.

Feral dogs largely do not do this. It happens that is the former we usually study as they are so successful. Results from these diet studies can indicate that dogs can eat a lot of vegetable matter (up to 40%) but this says little of what the dog selects normally when left to his own devices. Unfortunately, these studies of feral dogs are all too rare though they do indicate a much smaller vegetable component to the diet, less than 10% for the most part.
